GOD'S LOVE

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. -John 3:16

Love is the most comfortable attribute in God, and the best name by which we know him (1 John 4: 16). Love acts with a priority to all other attributes. Wisdom plans the happiness for man, and power and providence bring it to pass, but love has the first hand in the work. It was love that first summoned the great counsel held by all three persons in Elohim before man or angels existed.

Love marked the Son as the foundation of the whole structure of man's salvation and blessedness. Love sent Christ into the world, put him to death, and made him an offering for sin. All the attributes of God act in the strength of love, and all the providences of God flow from the motions of love. Electing love is the proper source of all our other mercies (Eph. 1). He has chosen us before the foundation of the world, bestowed grace freely upon us, and has given us redemption through his blood. Paul lays all these blessings at the feet of electing love (verse 11). Love is the only attribute that God has acted out to the utmost. We have never seen the utmost of his power, but we have seen the utmost of his love. He has tabernacled divinity in flesh (1 Tim. 3:

From The Pulpit...

-  Pastor Joshua Jonas will preach at the 8:00 a.m. service at the Tyrells Baptist Church (Tyrells Main Road) and also at the 10:00 a.m. service at the Central Baptist Church (Radio Range) on the topic "Divided Devotion" based on Matthew 6:22-24.
-  Bro. Rolando Lewis will preach at the 8:00 a.m. service at the Covenant Baptist Church (Friars Hill Road) on the topic "Total Surrender" based on Deuteronomy 4:29-35.
-  Pastor Dr. H.W.C. Jonas will preach at the 6:00 p.m. joint service at the Tyrells Baptist Church (Tyrells Main Road) on the topic "The Beauty of the Blessing" based on Numbers 6:22-27.

16). He has made his soul an offering for sin, and laid upon him the iniquity of us all (Isa . 53: 10-11). He has made us the righteousness of God in him (2 Cor. 5: 21); he has made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ (Eph. 2: 6), and written our names in heaven. How can divine love put forth any greater effort of love than this? It is infinite love and it gives the soul an interest in an infinite good. It entitles it to an infinite blessedness, and fills the soul with infinite satisfaction. Is not having an interest in this electing love the highest cause for rejoicing? Love gives us a 'name in heaven', which causes eternal rejoicing.

A Heavenly Escort

And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest. (Genesis 28:15)

Do we need journeying mercies? Here are choice ones—God's presence and preservation. In all places we need both of these, and in all places we shall have them if we go at the call of duty, and not merely according to our own fancy. Why should we look upon removal to another country as a sorrowful necessity when it is laid upon us by the divine will? In all lands the believer is equally a pilgrim and a stranger; and yet in every region the Lord is His dwelling place, even as He has been to His saints in all generations. We may miss the protection of an earthly monarch, but when God says, "I will keep thee," we are in no real danger. This is a blessed passport for a traveler and a heavenly escort for an emigrant.

Jacob had never left his father's room before; he had been a mother's boy and not an adventurer like his brother. Yet he went abroad, and God went with him. He had little luggage and no attendants; yet no prince ever journeyed with a nobler bodyguard. Even while he slept in the open field, angels watched over him, and the Lord God spoke to him. If the Lord bids us go, let us say with our Lord Jesus, "Arise, let us go hence."
